Historical Note

John M. Canse was pastor for the University Methodist Episcopal Church in Seattle, Washington, during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition of 1909.

Content Description

The John M. Canse Pamphlet Collection contains travel and settlement advertisements, maps, and historical documents about the American West from the end of the nineteenth century to the mid-twentieth century. Thematically, the collection pertains to Westward Expansion and undercurrents of Manifest Destiny. There is a rich variety of documentation on the state histories of Washington and Oregon. There is a notable amount of material on general United States history, the subfield of Native

American history, railroad history, and biography pertaining to iconic Americans such as President George Washington and Walt Whitman.
