Historical Note

The Seattle Women's Ensemble, a feminist choral group founded in 1980, performed culturally diverse music which often focused on women's issues. The women of SWE were enthusiastically supported by Seattle's lesbian and feminist communities, but other issues including class, diversity, and the plight of oppressed groups, were also important to the Seattle Women's Ensemble. The chorus disbanded in 2000.

Content Description

The collection consists of 18 photographs of the members of the Seattle Women's Ensemble. Included are a group portrait and informal shots of rehearsals for choral and theatrical performances.
