

UW Ethnomusicology Archives audio recordings: Pamela Amoss recordings: Nooksack Texts I and II, 1954-11

Overview of the Collection

Creator	Amoss, Pamela
Title	UW Ethnomusicology Archives audio recordings: Pamela Amoss recordings: Nooksack Texts I and II
Dates	1954-11 1954-11 1954-11
Quantity	2 items : 2 AIFF files (48 kHz, 24-bit); 1 WD - 2 compact discs; Duration: 2:03:44
Collection Number	2016002
Summary	Nooksack language sessions with George Swanaset.
Repository	University of Washington Ethnomusicology Archives University of Washington Ethnomusicology Archives Box 353450 Seattle, WA 98195-3450 Telephone: 206-543-0974 ethnoarc@uw.edu
Access Restrictions	Access is restricted.
Languages	English

Historical Note

Pamela Amoss, a former student of Melville Jacobs's, is an independent researcher living in Leavenworth, Washington. Amoss has produced a variety of anthropological works that examine the lifestyles and traditions of Coast Salish peoples.

Content Description

See UW Library's Special Collections for Pamela Amoss papers.

Durations: 2016-2.1.aif (1:11:26); 2016-2.2.aif (52:18); total = 2:03:44.

Documentation: Photo copies of tape box notes.

Administrative Information

Names and Subjects

Subject Terms :

Ethnomusicology
NW Coast Indians

Geographical Names :

North America
United States

Form or Genre Terms :

Sound Recordings

2017