Historical Note

The State Bank of Dillon was incorporated on June 14, 1899, by a group of investors in Dillon, Montana. The group of investors, who all had equal shares of stock in the company when it was incorporated, became the Board of Directors. During their first meeting in July, 1899, they discussed the bank's by-laws, director's duties, president and vice president's responsibilities, and the cashier's job. They also discussed the conveyance of real estates, business of the bank, stocks, certificates, and the role of the state auditor, who was in attendance during the meeting and ratified the by-laws. The Board of Directors conducted monthly meetings henceforth.

A yearly stockholders' meeting, which began in January, 1900 with the opening of the bank. During their meetings general bank business was discussed as well as profits and losses of the bank. The yearly meeting was held in January of each year.

Content Description

The collection includes the meeting minutes from both the yearly stockholders' meeting and the monthly Board of Directors' meetings from 1899-1939.
