Historical Note

The Confederated Tribes of Siletz is a federally-recognized confederation of 27 Native American tribal bands that originally lived from northern California to Washington. The tribal headquarters is in Siletz, Oregon. The tribe owns and operates the Chinook Winds Casino in Lincoln City, Oregon. Federal status was restored to the Confederated Tribes of Siletz in 1977.

Content Description

The Siletz News consists of issues of the monthly newspaper published by the Confederated Tribes of Siletz. It includes information on tribal programs, events, and members; health news from the tribal clinic; and details of activities at the Chinook Winds Casino. Of special note are notices of life events of tribal members such as birthdays, weddings, and graduations. The newspaper includes numerous color photographs of programs, events, and members.

The collection consists of both paper and electronic copies of the newspaper. Electronic copies are available online in the Oregon Multicultural Archives digital collection.
Paper copies span from 2007 to 2016. Only the February and December 2007 issues are available for that year. All issues are available for 2008-2012 and 2014-2015. For 2013, the collection does not include issues for May 2013 or December 2013. The paper copies end with the February 2016 issue.

Electronic versions of 39 issues of the newspaper, spanning from February 2014 thru April 2017, are part of the collection.
