Biographical Note

Ed Carlson was born Carl Gustav Edward Carlson on June 17, 1897 in Åsa, Småland, Sweden. Ed's parents, Emma and Johannes Carlson, had three other children: Einar, Alved, and Selma. Ed attended school for seven years and worked on a farm after classes. In 1916 Ed left for the United States on his own and settled in Aberdeen, Washington. After working for a time in a shipyard building boats for the army, Ed got a job at a Swedish sawmill where he worked for 25 years. In 1924 Ed married Anna Anderson, and they had four children. Ed is a member of the Vasa Lodge where they practice Swedish traditions; he still speaks the language at times. Ed has taken several return trips to Sweden, although he is glad that he lives in America.

Lineage

Administrative Information

Custodial History

The Oral History collection project was started during an experimental course on Scandinavian Women in the Pacific Northwest. Students in the course were encouraged to interview women and learn about their experiences as immigrants to the United States. The project was continued and expanded with support from the president's office and by grants from the L.J. Skaggs and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation, from the Joel E. Ferris Foundation and the Norwegian Emigration Fund of the Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The project was directed by Dr. Janet E. Rasmussen. The collection was transferred to the Archives and Special Collections Department.

Processing Note

The interview was conducted by Donna Mallonee using a cassette recorder. A research copy was also prepared from the original. To further preserve the content of the interview, it is now being transferred to compact disc. We deliberately did not transcribe the entire interview because we want the researchers to listen to the interviewee's own voice. The transcription index highlights important aspects of the interview and the tape counter numbers noted on the Partial Interview Transcription are meant as approximate finding guides and refer to the location of a subject on the cassette/CD. The recording quality is good.

The collection was transcribed by Mary Sue Gee, Julie Peterson and Becky Husby.

<td>96, side 1</td>
<td>278: LOGGING CAMPS Healthy looking guys. They knew how to use an ax, fall a tree. Americans had a hard time keeping up with the other men working in the woods. Mr. Poulson owned the logging company. There were many men working in the woods. Explains how they got logs down the river where they floated to main bay and taken to the sawmill. There were no highways in the woods.</td>

Parents have passed away. Brothers are still in Sweden. His family is doing fine. Does not regret living in America instead of Sweden.

Worked in the mills for 25 years. Worked as a councilman for the City of Aberdeen for 10 years. Collected money, etc.

Almost like ordinary people. Cannot tell Scandinavians apart by looking at them. Finnish people hard workers.

Still speaks the language at time. Many Scandinavians in the area. Still go to church early on Christmas morning as in Sweden.

Says prayer.

Always got silver on payday. Had to go to the bank if you wanted paper money.
