Historical Note

Established more than 100 years ago, Bikur Cholim Machzikay Hadath Congregation is Seattle's oldest congregation. It is the largest Ashkenazic Orthodox synagogue in the greater Seattle area.

Congregation Bikur Cholim—Machzikay Hadath began with the founding of Chevra Bikur Cholim in 1891. The congregation moved to Seward Park in the early 1960s, and merged with Congregation Machzikay Hadath in 1971. On January 22, 1972, Congregation Bikur Cholim—Machzikay Hadath celebrated the official opening of its newly constructed Seward Park building with the bar mitzvah of a fourth generation member of the original Bikur Cholim.
