

Larry Cappetto independent film collection, 2003-2004

Overview of the Collection

| | |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Creator | Cappetto, Larry |
| Title | Larry Cappetto independent film collection |
| Dates | 2003-2004 (inclusive) 2003 2004 |
| Quantity | 1 VHS videocassette |
| Collection Number | A0803 |
| Summary | The Larry Cappetto independent film collection (2004) consists of a documentary about the survivors of World War II's D-Day. Many of the veterans interviewed are Utah natives. Larry Cappetto is a Colorado based documentary filmmaker. This film premiered at the Salt Lake City Public Library. This collection is part of the Utah Independent Film Archive (UIFA). |
| Repository | University of Utah Libraries, Special Collections. Special Collections, J. Willard Marriott Library University of Utah 295 South 1500 East Salt Lake City, UT 84112-0860 Telephone: 801-581-8863 special@library.utah.edu |
| Access Restrictions | Materials must be used on-site; no use of original material, access copies will be made available for viewing. Five business days advanced notice required. Access to parts of this collection may be restricted under provisions of state or federal law, condition of the material, or by donor. |
| Languages | English |

Biographical Note

Larry Cappetto is a documentarian from Grand Junction, Colorado. A graduate of Mesa State College, Cappetto specializes in documenting the experiences of United States veterans of foreign wars with his Lest They Be Forgotten series. Most of the series' 12 volumes focus on World War II, but the series also contains episodes about American veterans of wars in Korea and Vietnam.

Content Description

The Larry Cappetto independent film collection (2004) consists of a documentary about the survivors of World War II's D-Day. Many of the veterans interviewed are Utah natives. This film premiered at the Salt

Lake City Public Library on March 26, 2004. This collection is part of the Utah Independent Film Archive (UIFA).

Administrative Information

Processing Note

Processed by Jimi Jones in 2004.

Detailed Description of the Collection

| Container(s) | Description | Dates |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Cassette | | |
| 1 | Lest They Be Forgotten volume I: "Omaha Beach, D-Day, June 6, 1944" VHS videocassette Veterans of the D-Day landing in Normandy, France describe their experiences fighting in World War II. Interviews with veterans, including many Utah natives, were conducted by Cappetto in 2004. 58 minutes. | 2004 |

Names and Subjects

Subject Terms :

Artists--Utah
Independent filmmakers
Veterans
World War II

Form or Genre Terms :

Moving images

Finding aid prepared by Jimi Jones.
2004

<http://creativecommons.org/publicdomain/zero/1.0/>

About Creative Commons Licenses in Archives West:

<http://archiveswest.orbiscascade.org/cc-zero.shtml>